MR. BRIAN O. WALDEN

Captain Brian O. Walden joined Marshall University as the Director of Bands and Coordinator of Music Education following his 2015 retirement as Commanding Officer/Conductor of the United States Navy Band in Washington, DC. At Marshall, Captain Walden conducts the Wind Symphony and is Coordinator of the Graduate Conducting Program and also guest conducts the Marshall University Orchestra and various choral and chamber groups. He earned a bachelor's degree in music with a double major in religious studies from Saint Leo University in Florida and a master's degree in wind ensemble conducting from the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston, where he was awarded the Outstanding Alumni Award by the Alumni Council in 2012. He also holds a graduate diploma in national security strategic studies from the U.S. Naval War College in Newport, R.I. Walden is currently working on his dissertation in the doctoral program for music education (Ph.D) at George Mason University where he was formerly adjunct faculty teaching and conducting the Symphonic Band. A native of Trenton, SC, he has an extensive recording resume' as a conductor and has commissioned and premiered important works for the wind ensemble medium. He has conducted international recording artists live and for television performances with Neil Patrick Harris and other artists such as Jason Mraz, James Taylor, Colbie Caillat, Take 6, Phillip Phillips (American Idol winner), Isaac Slade of the rock band "The Fray," Kenny "Babyface" Edmonds, Branford Marsalis (former Director of The Tonight Show Band with Jay Leno), Itzhak Perlman and many other artists. He has guest-conducted ensembles and performed as a trumpet instrumentalist in more than 74 countries and on every continent except Antarctica. As a trumpet instrumentalist, in addition to much freelance work as a multi-instrumentalist, he currently performs in the Marshall University Faculty Brass Quintet and has previously been a performing member of the Virginia Wind Symphony, the Virginia Beach Symphony Orchestra and La Orquesta Salsa y Mas, a touring Latin salsa ensemble. As a choral conductor he has conducted the Marshall University Choral Union and has previously served as Director of Music at Saint Paul's United Methodist Church in Cambridge, Md., and St. Andrews United Methodist Church in Virginia Beach, VA. Additionally he was the orchestral brass instructor for the Virginia Beach Public Schools Academy of Visual and Performing Arts. His current research project is centered on improving student teachers' confidence to teach from the podium while managing the classroom. He is also working on a research project based on the music and literature of composer and music theorist George Thaddeus Jones. At the time of his retirement from active duty, Captain Walden was the senior musician/conductor in the Department of Defense and President Barack H. Obama awarded Captain Walden the distinguished Legion of Merit for his 35 years of service. His additional awards include the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal, Joint Service Commendation Medal, Joint Service Meritorious Unit Award, Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal (two awards), Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal (seven awards) and many others.
