Dr. Debra Traficante currently serves as Kennesaw State University's (Atlanta, Georgia) Associate Director of Bands, conducting/directing all aspects of the KSU Marching Band and Basketball Band. Dr. Traficante also serves as the Conductor of the KSU Wind Symphony, and teaches conducting and music education courses, while also advising Music Education students. Dr. Traficante served on the brass staff for the Boston Crusaders from 2014 - 2017. She formerly served as Assistant Director of Bands at the University of Oklahoma where she conducted the Symphony Band, taught the "Pride of Oklahoma" Marching Band, conducting lessons to graduate and undergraduate students, graduate wind literature courses, undergraduate conducting and methods courses, and oversaw music education students. She also served in a myriad of service capacities throughout the School of Music. Professor Traficante earned her Bachelor of Music in Music Education from the University of Florida, Master of Music degree in Wind Band Conducting from the University of Florida, and earned a Fellowship to pursue a Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Conducting from the University of Oklahoma. Prior to her collegiate teaching, she served as Director of Bands for five years at New Smyrna Beach High School, Florida and Assistant Director of Bands for two years at Buchholz High School, Florida.

TERRY D. SEGRESS
Broken Arrow, Oklahoma

Terry Segress received his Bachelor of Music from Oklahoma City University; Master of Music and Ph.D from the University of North Texas.

He served as the high school band director in Erick and Weatherford, OK for ten years and taught at Southwestern Oklahoma State University, Weatherford, for 40 years. He directed the SWOSU Jazz Ensemble "A" from 1970-2006 and is the founder and former director of the SWOSU Jazz Festival, which is in its 50th year.

He has appeared on stage with many jazz artists including Clark Terry, Eddie Daniels, Rich Matteson, Byron Stripling, Carl Fontana, Dennis Mackrel, Frank Wess and John Clayton. He has performed on keyboards with Mike Steinel, Steve Wilkerson, Mike Moore, Will Campbell, Clark Gibson and many others. He performs regularly with The Modern Oklahoma Jazz Orchestra, the Sounds of Music Orchestra and the Generations Quartet in the Tulsa area.

He was inducted into the Oklahoma Jazz Hall of Fame and the Oklahoma Music Educators Association Hall of Fame. He was recognized by the Oklahoma Bandmasters Association for their Hall of Fame and for 50 years teaching in Oklahoma. He was honored as an outstanding emeritus professor at SWOSU in 2019.

His wife, Teresa, was the band director in Clinton, OK and Chaffin JH in Fort Smith, AR. She is now employed as an educational consultant with Palen Music in Broken Arrow.
