GARY D. GREEN

Gary Green, Professor of Music and Director of Bands at the University of Miami, conducts the Wind Ensemble and is also conductor of the University Symphonic Band. Besides being responsible for all band activities at UM, he is also Chairman of Instrumental Performance and is a member of the Clinics Committee of the Florida Bandmasters Association.

Prior to coming to Miami, Mr. Green was Director of Bands at the University of Connecticut in Storrs, Connecticut for ten years. He was also Director of Bands at University High School in Spokane, Washington for ten years, where his ensembles received superior awards in all mediums. During his tenure at the University of Connecticut, Green's bands received numerous invitations for performance including national and regional MENC appearances.

Also while at the University of Connecticut, Mr. Green was influential in commissioning and recording new works for the Wind and Percussion medium. Important new repertoire commissioned during that tenure include SYMPHONY NO. 3 by David Maslanka and A CORNFIELD IN JULY AND THE RIVER by William Penn. Current commissions include URBAN REQUIEM by Michael Colgrass, a new work premiered at the Southern Division Convention of the College Band Directors National Association. Recent recordings include UConn Premiers under the Noviesse label and Urban Requiem released under the Albany Records label. In a recent American Record Guide, critics stated: "The recording is close-up, and incredibly immediate. Cymbals, high brass, and percussion erupt with great brilliance; the bass drum in the Colgrass piece is awesome. In repertory and recorded sound, the whole thing reminds me of Frederick Fennell's Mercury Living Presence LPs I loved as a kid" Critics in Fanfare record review state; "...Soloists..indeed all of the UM Wind Ensemble—turn in wonderfully expressive, virtuostic performances.." "...the UM Wind Ensemble's talents are never in question.."

Mr. Green is a member of the American Band Masters Association, the College Band Directors Association, the Music Educators National Conference, the Florida Bandmasters Association and the Florida Music Educators National Conference.

Throughout his career Mr. Green has received numerous honors and awards. Recent conducting activities include events in Florida, Texas, Connecticut, Kansas, Maryland, Georgia, Utah, Virginia, Washington, Vermont, Maine, all New England, Kentucky, and numerous others. In addition, he has conducted International, National and Regional Honor Bands and Intercollegiate Bands in most of the fifty states.
